Conference Speaker:
Rev. Dr. Roland Ziegler

The Robert D. Preus Associate Professor of Systematic Theology and Confessional Lutheran Studies at Concordia Theological Seminary, Fort Wayne, Indiana

2014—Only three years until the 500th anniversary of the Reformation! Have five centuries of Church history resolved the theological differences which separated Martin Luther from the Papacy? The Roman Catholic church has changed. So has the Lutheran Church. What are the changes of each? Have they brought us closer together or moved us farther apart? Join us at The Lutheran Church of Our Savior of Cupertino to hear guest speaker Rev. Dr. Roland F. Ziegler address these and other questions relating to "Roman Catholicism—and Lutheranism—Then and Now."
